I am pleased to write this letter on behalf of Daniel Hernandez.

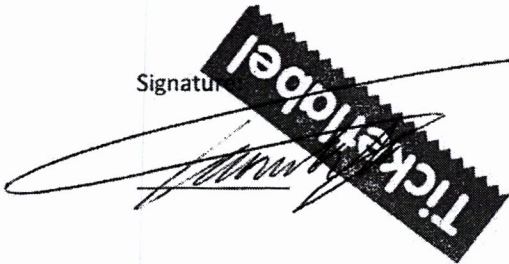

I met Daniel Hernandez at a show the company I work for was co-organizing. It was on the 15th of September.

My experience with Daniel went very well. Before the show we spent some time together and had conversations with him before his performance. During that conversation I soon noticed that he was very intelligent. I could not even compare him as I know him from his videos and performances. That is clearly an act that he sets, what I think is normal for an artist.

Furthermore, I could see that he is a family man, considering he often talked about his daughter and girlfriend. He expressed that he missed them a bit and wanted to fly them over. In short, he came across as a sensible boy who certainly does not walk next to his shoes and thus actually builds his image on the question of the youth (gangster rapper).

I am pleased to write this letter on behalf of Daniel Hernandez.

I met him last Summer as Promoter of Les Ardentes Festival in Liege Belgium

He spent two days in our city as he was to play the festival on July 6th and what I recall is that he was really curious about our history and asked to visit our old city center.

I also remember that he watched the soccer world cup along with other artists and members of our crew and that he specially enjoyed "Belgium vs Brazil" which was a highlight of the tournament!

His show was extremely energetic but always with a huge respect of his audience...

These are the words I can say about him, and I would be happy to invite him back to our festival.

Best regards,

Fabrice Lamproye

I am pleased to write this letter on behalf of Daniel Hernandez.
We have been doing various shows as promoter for Daniel in Europe and the Middle East.
I have met him as a really openhearted person who stood out with his exceptional kind behavior to fans, his crew and partners.
Most of our events take place in nightclubs, despite this fact, he is having a good time without drinking alcohol or taking drugs.

We are looking forward to working together with Daniel again soon.

Best Regards,

I am pleased to write this letter on behalf of Daniel Hernandez.

Working as a concert promoter in Denmark I contracted Daniel Hernandez for and Aarhus in September 2018.

Daniel was professional to work with. He managed to engage his fans with his mere presence. He was polite and easy to work with. Daniel Hernandez is who we wish him all the best in the future.

From a show we hosted in June 2018 at the Number One disco in Brescia, Italy, we had the chance to met for the first time Daniel Hernandez.

We experienced and had the chance to know not only an incredible artist and live performer, but a person who is super sensible and extremely in love with his fans.

He took great care of all the people willing to meet him, have a photo with him, gather his attention.

He smiled to everybody in the club and gave an unbelievable memory that will last forever in the hearts of all the kids that attended the show.

We have been working with tons of artists in the past 10 years and Daniel has for sure been one of the best we get the chance to luckily get in touch with.

It will be a pleasure to work again with him in the future and all our team wishes all the best to him for his personal life and career.

We had Tekashi 69 perform at Blockfest, the biggest Urban festival in Scandinavia, this summer. He was one of the most anticipated artists of the festival this summer. Tekashi 69 and his personnel were very professional, and it was a pleasure to work with them. We have only positive things to say about Tekashi 69 and his performance at Blockfest 2019.
